

LIVING IN HIS LOVE (A major, 5/4, 180bpm)

A C# D E
Draw me and we will run after thee
F#m C#m D A
Bring me, my king, to your chambers
D C# F#m E
We will be glad and rejoice in you
Bm D E
We will extol your love

Sweetly infused I'm glowing with you
Lingering here till we shine
Love I profess rests on your loveliness
Not any love of mine

A Bm D
We overcome
A Bm D E
Through Him who has loved us
A C# D F#m
All that subdued us we now rise above
Bm E A
Living in His love

Free from self vain, in clefts I'd remain
Harken to hear my sweet voice
Seek as I ought til I find whom I've sought
Love of my soul, rejoice!

Love was inlaid midst your palanquin made
Of purple, silver, and gold
Old things aside, come with you as your bride
Mountaintop's views we behold

(Chorus)

Here where you rest I'll love you the best
Tirzah, your love and delight
Clear as the sun, now with you I am one
Gaze upon your Shulammit

(Chorus)

OVERWHELMED BY LOVE (G major, 4/4, 112bpm)

G Am D G
You are as beautiful, O my love
G Am D G
As Tirzah's sanctuary above
G Am D G
Jerusalem, my dwelling place
G Am D G
Heavenly in nature, full of grace

D C D-G
Turn your eyes away from me
Em C D G
Your gaze is overwhelming me
D C D-G
Turn my perfect one, my dove
Em Am D G
I'm so weak before your love

(2nd & 3rd chorus)

Em Am D G
I am so weak before your love

A banner now has been unfurled
So terrifying to the world
You leave your enemies all dismayed
Conquering by your fierce array

(Chorus)

Within the veil your beauty lies
Laced with affection from your eyes
With all the love you emanate
How my heart you captivate

(Chorus)

OUR WALL (C major, 4/4, 165bpm)

C Dm G C Am G C
Hills of quills and mountains high and rocky clefts that fringe the sky
C Em F C F C G
The leaping hart can almost fly, it so bewilders me
C Dm G C Am G C
But mountains feel so far away, so in my fortress here I'll stay
C Em F C F C G
And from the hart my eyes will stray, lest looking set me free

CM7 C Am Em F C
And from afar I hear him say rise up my love and come away
Em Am C F C Am G C
To introspection's sway I fall, and trap myself inside our wall

Hues of blues and yellow light, the warming ray that breaks the night
A portal to a world so bright, my soul delights to see
But rays expose where they have shined, pervading spaces I've confined
So when he glanced through, I declined to open thoroughly

And from afar I hear him say rise up my love and come away
My listless heart should heed his call to come out from within our wall

Shoots of fruits on vines so vast, the bane of winter's rain is past
The time of singing—come at last—I've yearned so eagerly
But blossoms fall from whence they've sprung, and drops of rain still quench my tongue
The sweetest song I left unsung so tearless I could be

And from afar I hear him say rise up my love and come away
His love my tender heart enthralls, I'd seek for him outside our wall

And from afar I hear him say rise up my love and come away
His word had saved me after all, I'm seeking him outside our wall

THERE I'LL GIVE YOU MY LOVE (A Major, 4/4, 156bpm)

(Intro and riff) A D Abm-addb9 Bm7 A A Bm7 D A

A C#m
O I am my beloved's and his desire's for me
D E ADA
Come my beloved, let's go into the fields
A C#m
Lodging in the villages, gazing let us see
D E ADA
Vineyards where abundant fruit does yield

E A
There I'll give you my love
D E
For the vineyards, early rise up
Abdim A
Let us see if the vine has budded
F#m E
If the blossom is open,
Bm D E A(riff)
If the pomegranates are in bloom, I'll give you my love

Mandrakes give their fragrance forth, and over all our doors
Are all the choice fruits, new as well as old
These my beloved, I have stored up, on you to outpour
Fragrant as the love that we behold

(Chorus)

C#m D Bm A
Yesterday's labor was lost at your feet
C#m D Bm
Now in love's union our field is the world and our E Abdim A (riff)
Labor exudes a fragrance sweet

Fledgling eyes could only see how he belonged to me
Over keeping my own vineyard I obsessed
Selfish grasping passed away, now my heart is free
O I am his, and in our work we rest

(Chorus x2 with an Abdim tying them together at the overlap)

THE MOUNTAIN OF MYRRH (C major, ¾, 105bpm)

G C Em Dm C
I passed through the wilderness weary

C Dmadd2 Dm7G
Though humbled, my shadows remain

A chariot's mare came forth seeking
A king with a transforming balm
His myrrh was applied
Pharaoh's mare life had died
Now a lily emerged in its calm

Then I for my part until the day dawns
 Dm F G
To the mountain of myrrh will I go
 G7 C Dm Fadd2
Where for you I'll wait
 C Dm F
For you there I'll wait

If lilies through winter's enduring
Bear fuller, bright blooms in the spring
Then dying, we live
That the new life He'd give
Be the richest myrrh's mountain can bring

Although in our love there's no barrier between Within I'm still waiting for morning

Shadows haven't withdrawn
As long as they won't flee away
Then I for my part until the day dawns
To the mountain of myrrh will I go
Where for you I'll wait
For you there I'll wait

BLACK BUT LOVELY (A Minor, 4/4, 105bpm)

Am7 Dm+4 G Em Dm+4 C
Anger as a root of bitterness heard in the voices of my mother's sons
C Dm+4 G Am7 G C
Locked me in a chamber of darkness full of reviling by the ones
C Dm+4 G Em Dm+4 C
Who's vineyards now I keep, and who derided me while I wept
C Dm+4 G Am7 G Am7 G C Dm+4
Keeper of the vineyards they have made me, but my own I have not kept
Am7 G
Ooh

Am7 G C Dm+4 C G-Am7
I've been scorched by the sun, so don't look at me
G C Am7 G Am7
But I'm beautiful to One, I am black but lovely

Had I only seen what now I can through the enlightening of the sun
Then I would've known just who I am, not what I thought that I have become How vain it was to hide, how needlessly I repressed
Feelings of the shame that lingered inside, but now I just confess

(Chorus)

Dmadd4 G C
Born in sin and in the sight thereof
Am7 G F Em
I am utterly despised
Dmadd4 G C
Dwelling in the kingdom of your love
Am7 G Am7
I am beautiful in your eyes

Burdened with a load too hard to bear, with no reason there to remain
Tethered with what they entrust to my care but not what God ordained Since I found the peace I had sought, and the rest that I had dreamt of Now to my own vineyard I have been brought, and it's all because of love

(Chorus)

TURN (D minor/F major, 4/4, 150bpm)

Dm F
Turning back, reviewing past experience I've had
Gm Bb A C
He is mine and I am His, the glimpse of moments glad
Dm F
Feelings satisfied my heart, and that was plainly clear
Bb F Gm
But my feelings left me searching for his presence
Dm Gm A
In the vacant walls once lined with love sincere

F Gm C Bb C
Will you wait until the day dawns upon us
F Gm C Bb C
And shadows flee away, on the mountains
F Gm C A A7 Dm-Gm-C
of Bether, for me yearn, O my beloved, turn
A C Dm-Gm-C
O my beloved, turn,
A C Dm
O my beloved, turn

Shadows lengthen o'er my path, the sun begins to fade
Pleasures from love's youthful bliss--the wall that I have made
Clearly insufficient I can see the tall demand
Gm F Bb Dm
And the calling was surmounting, it was more than I could stand
Bb F C C7 A
So reluctance came and paralyzed my heart to take his hand

(Chorus)

Rising to forsake my treasured feelings--now my test
Tenderly he called me from the bed in which I rest
Night by night I sought him from my cavernous domain
But the echoes of the night had me surrounded
So it seems that all my seeking was in vain, now I'm pleading

(Chorus)

CLEFTS OF THE ROCK (C Major, 3/4, 172bpm)

(Intro: C G Gm Am7 Em Eb+9 Dm+4 C)

Can you hear me call from your house of wine

Dm+4 G C Dm+4 F+9 G Gm

In the precipice there you will see that you are mine

In the covert to remain

Never from the precipice leave

There my love in you will constrain

There my strengthening receive

Ooh will you stray from dwelling in the secret place?

Ooh when things dismay my victory you'll display

In the clefts of the rock, ooh in the clefts of the rock

Rock, ooh in the clefts of the rock

SICK WITH LOVE (C major, 4/4, 144bpm)

I sleep but my heart is awake
C G F C
Your gentle love I never meant to forsake
G E7 Am
A sound! Your enchanting knock
Dm G F G
Drops of night drip from your dew drenched locks

(Chorus)

I yearned for you in my inner parts
Your calling hand embraced my heart of hearts
When I arose you were gone
My fingers dripped with myrrh but you had withdrawn

(Chorus)

Watchmen search only to assail
They wounded me and stripped away my veil
O daughters help me in my deep distress
I've lost my love in all my helplessness

(Chorus)

I saw your hand in the door
My sister, love, my perfect one, my dove
My soul failed, but I won't lose you anymore
I'm seeking you cause I'm sick with love

I'm seeking you cause I'm sick with love

BEAUTIFUL AS THE MOON (C Major/A minor, ¾, 125bpm)

 Am7 G Am7 G Am7 G Am7
 A heavenly body she now has become
 F Am7 G Am7 C
 Beautiful as the moon

Those in darkness concealed
Break from bonds that once sealed
Testimony of light you reveal
Heavenly rays that can heal

 Fulgent glow upon souls below

 (Chorus)

Not one cloud can erase
All the light one can trace darkness reels from the sphere you embrace
With the glow of your face

 Lustrous one, radiant as the sun

SET ME AS A SEAL (F major, 4/4, 80bpm)

F C F
Set me as a seal on your heart

C F
Set me as a seal on your arm

Dm Am
For your love is strong as death

Gm Bb
Jealousy as cruel as Sheol

C F
Set me as a seal

Your love can't be quenched when it's tried
No floods can it drown in their tide
If for love one's wealth was spent
It'd be utterly contemned
Your love will not be quenched

C Gm Dm Gm
For your love's a most vehement flame, like flashes of fire

C Bb Gm C F
How I long to be raptured to you, you're my one desire
