

LOVE YOU WOULD PROVIDE (Ab major, 4/4, 148bpm)

G capo 1

G D
Run far away
C Em D
And swear by love, I'll never forsake you
G D
Hide in the field
C Em D
If arrows fly, they're coming to break you
Darkness of night
C Em D
Will cloak your flight, the new moon is nigh
G D
Soon we will find
C Em D G
The peace of life from love He would provide

Save your life tonight
Lest morning come and tragedy find you
Flee till the dawn
The lowering through windows behind you
Flee while I devise
An effigy to serve as your guise
In me confide
And ever mind the love He would provide

Tied in a bind
The sovereign hand of God had constrained me
Though paralyzed
His resurrection power sustained me
Oh, like a fire
My burning love; for you I surrendered
When I was tried
Endurance came through love you would provide
When I was tried
I was sustained by love you would provide

Whiter than snow, Lord, wash me; I'll stay with You until
Through the broken You'd build

I'm so ashamed, can You hide Your face from my sins?
I'm just a man with an unclean heart
O God, renew a steadfast spirit within
And from Your presence may I never part

Through the broken, Lord, build
This empty vessel only you alone can fill
Whiter than snow, Lord, wash me; I'll stay with You until

Why have you not built Me a house?

When your days are fulfilled and you sleep with your fathers
I will raise up your seed after you
Lord, for Your home my heart, I offer
You are my treasure, not what I can do
My only treasure is nothing but You

TRAGEDY (F# minor, 4/4, 120bpm)

F#m D A E
Maybe I'm a madman making marks upon your door
F#m D A E
Wandering while women sing of worthy men of war?
F#m D A E
Could I be a king without his country anymore?
Bm C#m D E
I hardly know the boy I knew before

A medium maligned had met a mortal malady
The prophet pulled from rest professed rebellion's penalty
With kingdom torn, my king was scorned by his insanity
Bm C#m D E F#m
Ultimately ending in a tragedy

G#dim E F#m E D
Selfishness and envy left him orphaned and alone
G#dim E F#m E D
His seething eyes would force me to a place I'd never known
Bm C# F#m E D
On horns of a dilemma now I fight against my own
C#m D E
Tragedy can cut right to the bone

Valiantly the vanguard vanished in it's vanity
Blatantly believing a betrayer I could be
Seemingly a snare is set, so in Your sovereignty
Rescue me from falling into a tragedy

Princes passed us by until the battle lines were drawn
Endlessly objecting to my will to carry on Though you're like an angel, you must leave at break of dawn
With angel's wings by morning I was gone

Cries of chaos came from men who crossed calamity
Fire burned, the weeping yearned in tears of agony
Battling the brazen bandits bare brutality
Brought us salvation from a tragedy
Bm C# F#m E D
Deep in my dilemma was a God who intercedes
Bm C#m D E F#m
Catching me from falling into a tragedy

Death's waves encompassed and floods assailed
To my cry His ears availed

Though cords of Sheol may surround
Confronting snares of death abound
In my distress he hears my voice

From His temple, I rejoice

C Gm F C
Take of His grace, no anger will linger
Am Dm F C
Quenching the fire the devil does keep

Corner cut from his cloak
Hand stretched against my own king
Humbled, my heart left me smote
God forbid I should do such a thing

Anger I have, but anger I'm not Free from its grip shall I be
Quench all its smoldering flame
Calm me by Your grace that flows free

Don't let the sun go down on your anger
Embers of ire will burn you in sleep
Take of His grace, no anger will linger
Quenching the fire the devil does keep

ONE SMALLER CROSS (F major, 3/4, 125bpm)

F Gm Bb F

Gm C Bb AmC Edim
What I gained I lost in one smaller cross
C7 F
I couldn't bear

Bm A G#dim F#
You came to disarm all the rage in my heart
Fdim F# Gm Edim F
And right from the start I knew I was wrong

My God delivered me
From the paw of lions and bears
But the savage beasts proved to be the least
Of tests He'd prepare

My shepherd's bag of stones and a sling
Defeated a dare
But my gain I lost in one smaller cross
I couldn't bear

Bm A G#dim F#
His folly was clear as the blood on my hands
Fdim F# Fdim F#
Coursing my veins, writhing in pain
Gm Edim F
From what I'd become

A sleeping infantry with a spear
Were caught unaware
But I spared their king and vanished with his things
Like a flea through the air

My shouts assailed his camp
With a force the mighty declare
Yet I failed to see how careless I can be Till you showed you care
And my gain I lost in one smaller cross
I couldn't bear

THE KINDNESS OF GOD (D minor / G major / F major, 4/4, 95/80/84bpm)

G Am C
I came to you wholly disabled
G Am C
In my helplessness and shame
G Am C
You set my feet under your table
Bbm F Edim
And you called me by my name

Have you come from the war finding only a widow's heart
All that matters now anymore, is to know that we'll never part

Though I've been so wronged by Ziba's lies
Let him take it all; my king arrived in peace

I came to you wholly disabled
In my helplessness and shame
You set my feet under your table
Bbm F Edim Dm C Edim
And you called me by my name Ooh

F Gm
Show me the kindness of God
Am Bb C
I'm utterly flawed and left lame
Dm C Gm F
All my dreams were just a mirage
Dm C6 C
Until you had called me by name
Edim F
And showed me the kindness of God

Show me the kindness of God
My dignity turned into shame
Save me from this empty facade
And heal me by calling my name
Show me the kindness of God

Show me the kindness of God
Whatever I've lost is your gain
Nothing here on this earthly clod
Compares to your calling my name
Show me the kindness of God
