SONGS IN THE NIGHT (Bb Major, 3/4, 155bpm)

Bb Fsus2 Gm
Precious morning star
Ebm Ebsus2 Bb F Gm
Rapture me so far from here
Eb Ebm
Let this earth fall away
Bb F Gm
Let its glitter fleet and fade
Ebm Ebsus2 Bb
Till it disappears

Overwhelming me
Is this sense of vanity
Coursing my veins in the name
Of chasing a dream

But I'm leaving ere the night turns to morning

Lest the daylight come without fair warning

He who gives songs in the night?

If my mind recalls
Scenes that forged my prison walls
Make my delight at midnight
While foundations will fall

let my joy be every prisoners bondage-breaker

Intro high Cmaj7 Dm Am high C7

F C Bb C
I've been circling 'round this mountain

I thought the night would leave me alone
Dm C Gm
If I'd bear it on my own

Bbmaj7 Bb F
'Cause I kept all my integrity about me

Passed through the trial but my eye couldn't see
Bb F C
I suffered the loss but passed through in vain
F Gm7 C
Where God I never gained
Ooh

If I wake before the morning light
It's not that I couldn't sleep
There's an answer in a whirlwind
And it's giving me just a glimmer of something deep

It was a shame to me
I never really heard it before
I can't quell it anymore

And You know how I just really love You
And how all I want is just to please You
Burn into my being all that I see

Cause I've heard so many things about you
I never even once doubted they were all true
But now I've seen and realize

With my own eye
With my own eye

Will I turn my heart astray?
Will I keep it pure?

Seeking out His dealings?

THE PATH I CHOSE (Eb major, 3/4, 143bpm)

So obscurely, it cruelly

Shattered and tragically failed

Here lies the path that I chose

Ever costly, it taught me

Words not everyone knows

Whispered softly, they brought me

To where I belong

Where time can't make everyone better

I won't try to intervene

And although I understand your sorrow

Taking this way depends on the vision that you've seen

HE WHO WATERS (Eb major/F dorian, 6/8, 120bpm)

Fm

God only knows what might it brings

Cm

To search it out is the glory of kings

I told a boy in desert lands

To grasp a lizard with his hands

But one of those four wiser things

Lives in the palace of the king

On judgment's throne, the king who's wise

Will scatter evil with his eyes

There's wickedness under the sun

I'm waiting for the end to come

I'm just a man, in work I'm skilled

Sometimes ashamed of what I've built

Before the kings I'll take my stand

And not before an obscure man

In righteous lips, the kings delight

They love the subject who speaks right

As the heaven's height, as the deepest springs

Unsearchable is the heart of kings

Unsearchable is the heart of kings
